OUR AMERICAN HERITAGE AND GROWTH

On July 4, 1776, a group of men, dedicated to the cause of liberty, issued to the world our Declaration of Independence, thus establishing this nation. Adoption of the Constitution continued this precedent in world history. The editors of this yearbook, after much deliberation, selected our American Heritage as the theme of this book.

The above map measures the growth of the United States in terms of territorial expansion. But, as a nation, we have been constantly growing, developing, and maturing in all fields of human endeavor, until this day, we are the most powerful and wealthiest nation in the world. Our riches, abundance, and accomplishments are awesome and make us humble in our gratitude.

However, in this yearbook, we have endeavored to emphasize what we think to be the major and lasting values of our heritage. These values constitute a way of life that has given our people a greater degree of security and happiness than any other government in the history of man. Many have characterized our country as the "great experiment in living democracy." This concept of the way free men should and must live has evolved through much torment, strife, and struggle. The ideals of freedom and democracy have been bought with American blood. There are many memorial tablets in our school that attest to this fact. This, then is our most cherished part of our inheritance. Our freedoms are our proudest achievements.

As the fly leaf at the back of the Athenaeum, the editors deliberately selected a photographic reminder of the bombing of Pearl Harbor as a warning that Americans must be alert, vigilant, and willing to make sacrifices to preserve our dearly and bitterly won AMERICAN HERITAGE.

The struggle today against us is diabolically subtle and sophisticated. It will be the task of the future for Americans to continue to rise to the requirements and duties of this complex challenge and meet it successfully. For, we are essentially the last defenders of freedom and democracy in the world . . . the last hope of mankind.

BARRINGER'S HALL OF FAME

Our Nominee
MRS. AUGUSTA B. FREY, R.N.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

We, the graduating Class of January 1959, declare our nominee for membership in Barringer's Hall of Fame to be Mrs. Augusta B. Frey. We deem her worthy of this honor in consideration of her unwavering dedication and service to the students and faculty of Barringer. Her responses in countless situations are a tribute to the traditions and ethics of her noble profession.

In our estimation, no one is more befitting the title of Registered Nurse than our Mrs. Frey. She never failed to live up to the responsibilities and ideals of service established by her profession. Her treatment consisted of an adept combination of sound medical advice, a witty sense of humor, and plenty of human warmth. Wisely knowing the interaction of physical and emotional factors in causing illness, Miss Frey never neglected the emotional health of students, who sought medical advice.

We are grateful to Mrs. Augusta Frey for being an efficient and competent nurse, but most important of all, we wish to express our appreciation for being a good friend to us. In a world where there is little unselfish love, service to humanity, and few true friends, we have learned to treasure such devoted individuals as you, Mrs. Augusta B. Frey, R.N.

CHIEF INTEREST OF MAN

I think it is not difficult to account for today's heightened interest on the part of the general public throughout our Nation and, indeed, the free world in the improvement of justice. That growing interest is in large measure a product of the tumultuous times in which we live. For these are not only times which have produced a monstrous threat to all freedom, but, by the very reason of that threat, are times which have induced in free peoples everywhere an ever intensifying critical self-examination of the institutions upon which their freedoms depend — an insistence upon exposure of the imperfections of those institutions, a peremptory demand upon those who are entrusted with those institutions to improve and strengthen them the more surely to withstand the onslaught bent upon their destruction. Never was it more true than today that "Justice sirs, is the chiefest interest of man on earth."

SPEAKS TO SENIORS

DEMOCRACY IS A GROWING, DEVELOPING MECHANISM

"I am happy to have the opportunity to express my thoughts to the Barringer High School students.

It seems to me that one of the most important elements in maintaining democracy or self government in our land is to interest our young people, the citizens of tomorrow, in their responsibility as future citizens. It seems to me that in verse and song and prose, we talk about our liberties a little too much! We can't have liberties and equality of opportunity, which seems to be our ideal, unless we have a willingness on the part of our citizens to assume the responsibilities that are definitely a part of liberty and land rights as citizens.

You have an obligation to prepare yourself for that endeavor. We talk about equality of opportunity. It's one of those ideals which is never fully realized. It was expressed in some of the fundamental documents which brought about the birth of the country and the development of the Constitution. It doesn't mean quite the same today, as it meant 150 years ago.

You must recall that at the time of the adoption of the Constitution that equality of opportunity was probably more of an expression of an idea than an accomplishment. At the time of the adoption of the Constitution, for instance, not all people in the United States had the right to vote. In this very state, up until 1844, before a person could hold public office, he had to meet a religious qualification. We have gotten the right to vote over the years by virtue of interested citizens.

And only through the efforts of a great many people, through the years, with unmoved selfish motives have we come to the situation of today, where in most areas of the United States, we have equality of educational opportunities. There are some areas right in the state of New Jersey where the standard is not quite what it is in other areas!

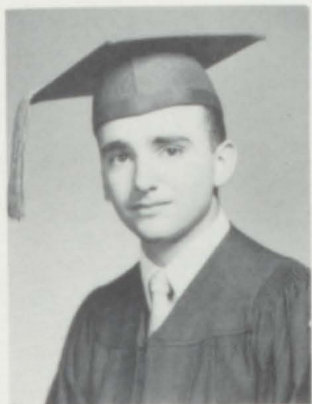

Democracy is a growing, developing mechanism. Self government achievements of ideals can only be brought about by the constant re-examination of the willingness of the substantial amount of our citizens to try to bring our existing force of laws more into keeping with the ideal of democracy.

In each generation of self government, there have been citizens who have just thought of themselves and their own immediate family, but were willing to be their brothers' keeper and devote their lives and much of their efforts for the benefit of their fellow man.

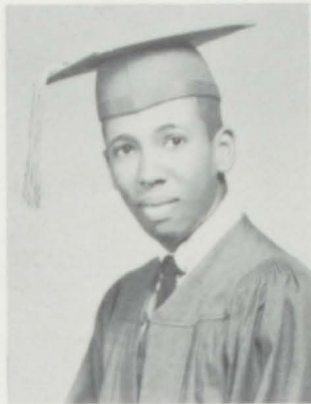

Are you going to be one of those persons who decided to live alone or in a vacuum? Are you going to participate in a vital growing democracy? I would hope that you would, by your effort, prepare yourselves for the obligation that you should undertake when you reach voting age. This requires effort and work in the self understanding of the problems of your fellow man."

"How about putting the copy here?"

These cartoons will make the New Yorker jealous!

At the age of two with his brother Sol.

A fine looking boy
at the age of three.

The well dressed student.

Alas Graduation . . .
the beginning of a new life in High School.

In High School his friends were plenty.

Notes, notes and more notes.

A fine and good looking Corporal . . .
"Attention" . . .

As we open the book of your life . . . On April 30, 1927 Marvin Shlofmitz was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Shlofmitz. He was a very pleasant baby. From a very young age he wanted to teach other children and constantly played school with his brother Sol. They got along very well together.

He began his education at the age of five and attended 14th Avenue Grammar School in Newark. He enjoyed going to school. With honors in 1939 at the age of 13½ he was graduated from Grammar School.

He later went to West Side High School also in Newark. While in West Side he served on the school paper and took an interest in this type of work. In 1943 he was graduated and went on to Montclair State Teachers' College. Then in 1946, Uncle Sam stepped in and interrupted his college education for a while. In the United States Army Air Force he did a fine job as a corporal.

After being in the Air Force he lost interest in school; but with the help of a professor he regained his ambitions and enrolled again at Montclair State Teachers' College. In 1948 he was graduated from Montclair State but went on studying and later he received his Master's Degree in English and History.

He was offered his first teaching job in 1950 in Teaneck High School. After teaching there for four years he took Newark examinations and passed. He then was transferred to Cleveland Junior High School in Newark. He taught there for two years, but did not enjoy his stay there.

He then felt as though he wanted to teach outside of Newark until he came to Barringer in 1955 where he has remained and is very satisfied.

We, the Class of January 1959, would like to express our appreciation and gratitude to Mr. Shlofmitz for doing a fine and outstanding job as our yearbook adviser . . . and friend . . .

This is your life Marvin Shlofmitz . . .

The beginning of a teaching career . . . at Teaneck High School.
